A QUICK REFERENCE GUIDE

for placing identifiers and publisher's information in printed and PDF publications

Publisher's information about the publication comprises several elements: the edition notice, back cover elements and the publicity notice. The proposed order of these elements is from front to back, but this can be adjusted according to need and updated as appropriate.

The layout can be adapted, where necessary, based on the design of the individual publication; the type and size of font of the publisher's information can also be changed.
Please note that some elements are mandatory (red), conditional (yellow) or optional (green).

■ Mandatory   ■ Conditional   ■ Optional   NA – not applicable   ISG – Interinstitutional Style Guide

■	■	Council Recommended as the Council has approved a decision on the reuse of their publications.	Reuse is authorised provided the source is acknowledged. The reuse policy of the Council is implemented under Council Decision (EU) 2017/1842 of 9 October 2017 on the open data policy of the Council and the reuse of Council documents (OJ L 262, 12.10.2017, p. 1, ELI: http://data.europa.eu/eli/dec/2017/1842/oj).

([1]) Agencies have legal personality so the wording '© Agency X' is recommended. However, the Agency may have transferred the publication's copyright to the European Union through a contract or any other instrument so the wording '© European Union' should not be excluded either.

([2]) Author means 'institution, body, service or agency'.

The reuse policy of the European Court of Auditors (ECA) is implemented under Decision of the European Court of Auditors No 6-2019 on the open data policy and the reuse of documents. Unless otherwise indicated (e.g. in individual copyright notices), the ECA's content owned by the EU is licensed under the Creative Commons Attribution 4.0 International (CC BY 4.0) licence. This means that reuse is allowed, provided appropriate credit is given and changes are indicated. The reuser must not distort the original meaning or message of the documents. The ECA shall not be liable for any consequences of reuse.
		Other authors General wording to be used, except if the author decides to use an opener notice: 'reuse authorized' or 'Creative Commons'.	Reproduction is authorised provided the source is acknowledged.

For any use or reproduction of elements that are not owned by the [European Union], permission may need to be sought directly from the respective rightholders. (³)   If there is a reason to make available the publication directly under the Reuse Decision and not to use Creative Commons, the following notice may be used:
'Reuse is authorised provided the source is acknowledged and the original meaning or message of the document is not distorted. The European Commission shall not be liable for any consequence stemming from the reuse.
